POLICE STOREFRONT DONATIONS ARE NEEDED

Heights Storefront Advisory Council
c/o Anthony Ercolani
P. O. Box #70435, Houston, TX 77270

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself. My name is Anthony Ercolani and I work as a community volunteer for the Houston Police Department serving as the Fundraising Chairman of the Heights Storefront Advisory Council.

The Heights Storefront Advisory Council ("Council") is a Texas non-profit corporation, that incorporated in June 1997. The council's sole purpose is to provide guidance and fundraising efforts for start-up and maintenance of two new Houston Police Department Community Stations. Center America Property Trust, Inc. has donated the two spaces to the Houston Police Department and the citizens of the Greater Heights communities for a nominal fee of $1.00 per year. The police officers of the Greater Heights will be relocating to adjacent shopping centers located at 11th Street and N. Shepherd.

Our volunteer organization is contacting individuals, local businesses and area civic organizations that are donating in-kind services, funds, materials and other items to facilitate the renovation project. The renovation of the lease spaces will be done in two phases. Phase I, located at 910-D Durham is a 1,000 square-foot facility that will have an on-site officers' quarters, a sergeant's office, an area to make reports with laptop computer hookups, a break room, restroom facilities and a telephone/computer room. Phase II, located at 1127 N. Shepherd is a 1,200 square-foot facility to serve as an operation base for the 'bicycle patrol' officers; featuring a repair shop and including dressing rooms and shower facilities for the patrol officers.

All sponsors will be recognized at the grand opening of the storefront, in the area newspaper as well as in the storefront newsletter. If you need further information, please contact me at 713-864-7936.

Thank you for your strong consideration in subsidizing this project.

Very truly yours,
Anthony Ercolani,
Community Volunteer

NEW HOME OWNER'S PACKAGE
